

Leeds welcomes asylum-seekers and refugees

Leeds
City of Sanctuary

Leeds City of Sanctuary is part of a national movement to build a culture of welcome for people seeking sanctuary in the UK.

Together, we can make Leeds a place of safety and welcome.

Some things you can do:

- Donate clothes and food to support newly arrived or destitute asylum seekers
- Find out about campaigns for the rights of refugees
- Volunteer – there are opportunities aplenty, even if you only have an hour a week
- Smile, greet people, and make friends! Invite people to join your activities.
- Like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter – and don't forget to share!

As a resident of Leeds, I am committed to this city being a place of welcome, inclusion, and possibility for those coming to seek sanctuary in the UK. I recognise the positive contribution made to our communities by those given the chance to rebuild their lives, and look forward to involving them in our activities and life as a city.

I support Leeds becoming a recognised City of Sanctuary.
